

Do you want to work in events?

Would you like to learn more about Event Production?

Do you want to get some hands-on experience?

FREE Event Management Training – Short Course

When: Tues 14th – Fri 17th September 10am-5pm & Sat 18th 9:00am-6:00pm

Where: Mill Arts & Events Centre and Rayleigh Windmill, Rayleigh

What: Training to help run the “Rayleigh Arts Festival”

The Rayleigh Arts Festival takes place each September at the Mill Arts & Events Centre, Rayleigh Windmill and outdoors on Rayleigh High Street. The festival will host 30 activities and events to an expected audience of 1,500 and will include concerts, exhibitions, workshops, theatre and film.

We are looking for unemployed adults to help us make it happen and in return we will provide you with formal training, a certificate in Emergency First Aid, certificate of achievement and support with moving into employment, education or volunteering afterwards.

You will work with industry professional trainers to find out about what it takes to run an event, get actively involved in setting up the event, work on developing confidence and communication skills and much, much more.

Some support is available with travel and childcare costs.

Interested?

If you are:

Unemployed

Not in education

Eligible to work in the EU

Able to attend the five day course

WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU...

For more information please call Roxie Curry on 01702 318171 or roxie.curry@rochford.gov.uk

Deadline for booking – Friday 10th September 2010

This course is a Team East for Skills initiative, run by Theatre Resource in partnership with Rochford District Council and funded by European Social Fund and Legacy Trust UK www.teameast.org.uk